EXCITEMENT ON A STEAMER.—A tumult of fear was caused at the landing at Marshall Hall about 8:30 o'clock last night by the steamer Samuel J. Pentz running into the Macalister. The latter boat was lying at her wharf when the Pentz steamed up and struck heavily near her bow. The crowd on the Pentz rushed in great alarm to that side of the boat and careened her bow in the water. As the two boats came together the Pentz's guard was much below that of the Macalister, and the bow of the latter was thrust over and carried away a lot of the Pentz's railing and light woodwork. The total damage was not over $100, of which much the greater part fell upon the Pentz. The Pentz, with Captain Barker aboard, had been on a special trip to Colonial Beach, and on her return had aboard a number of passengers who wanted to stop at Marshall Hall. The purpose of putting her in as she did was to land those passengers over the Macalister's deck. Capt. Blake, of the Macalister, said this had not been the practice for five years, but made no criticism. The Macalister was on her regular trip, and soon after the accident pulled out and proceeded on her way. Her passengers were considerably excited and nothing else was talked of for a time; but no effect was felt on board, aside from a little jarring. The blame was put entirely upon the Pentz. Capt. Barker, of the Pentz, said the accident was caused by the failure of the bell to respond, so that when he ordered to reverse the engines his engineer did not get the signal. After the fouling the Pentz backed out, and a few moments later the Macalister left the wharf.

"GREATER" ALEXANDRIA.—Our esteemed contemporary, the Alexandria Gazette, says:

It is again said that a movement is on foot to get the legislature this fall to have the corporate limits of Alexandria extended over West End and to the north of St. Asaph junction, thus taking in all the out-lying villages and forming the "Greater Alexandria" with a population of about 25,000.

Now, if our good friends in Alexandria want to make that city truly great, instead of trying to gobble up a portion of Fairfax, they should seek annexation to this good old county. West End, which will soon be incorporated as a town, will doubtless be willing to take Alexandria under its protecting wing. And later, when the W. A. & M. V. E. R. R. extends its line to this place, and the B. & O. builds its line through here, the ancient and renowned city of Fairfax will be glad to share with them its prosperity and fame, by embracing within its boundaries Amandale, Lincolnia, West End, Alexandria and other suburban towns.—Fairfax Herald.

POLICE COURT.—Justice Thompson presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Clem Green, colored, arrested by Officers Griffin and Arrington charged with disorderly conduct and with using threatening language toward his sister, was fined $5.

Thomas Elizey, colored, arrested by Officers Howson and Atkinson charged with assaulting a colored boy named Thomas Coleman, was fined $5.

A number of persons, summoned by Officers Hall, Ferguson, Brach and Bettis charged with keeping unlicensed dogs, were fined $1 each.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and warm. Two prisoners and three lodgers were at the station house.

REWARD PAID.—When the lunch rooms of Mr. Norman Gibbs at Mount Vernon were broken into and robbed last spring Mr. C. Lukens, for the residents of that neighborhood, offered a reward of $25 for the arrest and conviction of the thief. A colored youth named Nathaniel Harrison was subsequently arrested in this city by Officer Smith and Readyman Webster charged with the offense and he pleaded guilty and was sentenced in the Fairfax county court to two years in the penitentiary. To-day Mr. Lukens paid Messrs. Smith and Webster $10 each, for the services they rendered in making the arrest.

The tug O. W. Ridley was sold to-day at a U. S. Marshall's sale, the tug having been libeled for debt, and was purchased by Mr. A. G. Uhler, for $1,035. The sale was made by Messrs. O'Neal and Lunt.

An infant son of Mr. M. Pretzfelder died last night.

THE LATE F. A. REED.

After the death of Mr. F. A. Reed, which occurred at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Dr. Purvis, the Coroner, summoned Messrs. Charles J. Wise, A. A. Warfield, W. D. Stewart, Robert Arnold, Frank Warfield and C. G. Lennon as a jury of inquest, and last night they viewed the body, heard all the facts in connection with the sad suicide and through their foreman, Mr. Wise, returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death from a pistol shot wound inflicted while under temporary aberration, caused by prolonged sickness. The deceased had remained in an unconscious state from the time he shot himself. His head and face were terribly disfigured by the shot, so much so that his most intimate friends would have experienced difficulty in recognizing him. The bullet, as stated yesterday, had lodged in the left temple, and that side of his head and face had swollen beyond all proportion. The particulars of the suicide, as given in yesterday's GAZETTE, are about all there is to the sad story, which is but a repetition of what is going on in the world continually—lives of usefulness and industry terminating in mental wrecks and suicides. And the age in which we live, with its manifold requirements, is productive of just such cases—a complete wearing out of body and soul. For forty years Mr. Reed had devoted all his energies to the active business life into which he was born, and during all that time he had labored early and late until nature would no longer bear the tension. His movement yesterday morning showed he had arrived at his neplus ultra. After breakfast he walked down King street, where he met and spoke to several acquaintances. While his manner was seemingly unchanged then he appeared to have nothing objective in his movements. He went to his office and looked over his mail, but the letter he read apparently lacked interest, and he walked out to the end of the pier and stood for some moments looking up and down the river. Several persons who were on the wharf at the time, and who spoke to him, remember that he replied in an abstracted way, but nothing was thought of it. He returned to his office but only stayed there a few minutes when he left hurriedly for home. Upon entering the house his wife noticed that he was not in his normal condition, and that he was irresponsible. It seemed impossible for him to remain in one spot, and he moved from room to room with his hand to his head in mental or physical agony, or probably both. Mrs. Reed and her niece were much alarmed, and the latter was dispatched for Dr. Kleinstein, but before he arrived Mr. Reed had fired the fatal shot. The deceased will be buried at 5 o'clock to-morrow afternoon with full Masonic rites, and in order to attend the funeral Old Dominion Commandery will postpone their trip to Boston until 10:52 Sunday night. They had intended to start in a special train at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. Andrew Jackson Lodge will also follow the remains to the grave. Past Grand Master William H. Lambert will conduct the ceremonies, according to an agreement made between him and the deceased that the longest liver would officiate at the other's funeral. A meeting of the Grand Lodge of Virginia has been called for to-morrow, and it is believed it is their intention to attend the funeral. Mr. Reed was a member of Belle Haven Council, Knights of Honor. A meeting of the Board of Trade will be held to-night for the purpose of taking suitable action in regard to the death of Mr. Reed. The flags on the Potomac river steamers were at half-mast to-day in respect to the deceased.

PERSONAL.—Mr. W. Brooke Hunter, of Hyattsville, Md., will be married to his cousin, Miss Margaret Stuart Terrett, of Fairfax county, on Tuesday, September 3d. The wedding will take place at the residence of the Misses Fillebrown, in Washington, cousins of the contracting parties, and will be private. Rev. Charles J. Mayo, rector of the Epiphany Memorial Church of Hyattsville, will perform the ceremony. After a brief sojourn among the mountains of West Virginia and western Maryland, the happy couple will return to Hyattsville where they will be glad to see their friends. Miss Terrett is the only daughter of the late Colonel George H. Terrett, of the Confederate army. Mr. Hunter is the Hyattsville correspondent of the Washington Star and connected with the Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington.

A letter received in this city to-day from Rev. Carl Grammer stated that he was well and that he is on his way from Canterbury, England, to the continent. He expects to sail for home on the 24th of September.

Misses Julia B. and Mamie B. Agnew, of Alexandria, are visiting Miss Cossie J. Brown, at Circleville.—Loudoun Telephone.

Mr. J. A. Marshall and family have returned from the Sweet Chalybeate Springs.

Mr. Shirley Clark, of this city, and Mr. G. A. Hulshof, of Haymarket, have returned from a trip to New York and Atlantic City.

Miss Lillie Leveton, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Julia Lindsey on south Lee street.

Mrs. P. F. Price, of Lynchburg, is the guest of Mrs. Henry Kelly on south Patrick street.

Mr. John D. Suter, of Lynchburg, is in the city, having come to see his father, Rev. Mr. Suter, who is seriously ill. Mr. Suter's other sons are also with him.

THE TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE.—The twenty-sixth triennial convocation of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, has been the engrossing topic of conversation among the local Knights during several weeks past, and most of the members of Old Dominion Commandery of this city have been actively engaged in preparation for their pilgrimage to Boston. All preliminary details are now completed and the event promises to be a red-letter one in the history of Old Dominion Commandery. The party of Knights and their ladies and friends setting out from city will number about 100. The Alexandria party will leave this city to-morrow night at 10:52 o'clock. It was understood that the commandery would leave here to-morrow morning for Boston, but owing to the death of Mr. F. A. Reed, Past Eminent Commander of the Old Dominion Commandery, their departure will be postponed till night in order that the members of the commandery may attend the funeral. The party leaving this city will be composed as follows:

Eminent Commander, J. E. Alexander; W. M. Smith, Generalissimo; John H. Fisher, Captain General; Edgar Warfield and K. Kemper, Past Eminent Commanders; E. E. Downham, Past Grand Commander; C. Simpson, S. W.; F. S. Reynolds, Standard Bearer; B. M. Aitchison, G. P. Aitchison, Peter Aitchison, W. L. Allen, H. S. Ashby, G. M. Bastable, E. S. Brockett, H. S. Brown, G. E. Carlin, C. E. Churman, C. E. Davis, W. E. Davidson, G. W. Fisher, W. F. H. Fiske, S. Fouché, S. B. Fowler, Jas. Grigg, Jas. G. Hudson, H. Kirk, C. G. Lennon, C. B. Marshall, J. B. Padgett, J. A. Paul, T. W. Robinson, J. R. Tillett, A. G. Uhler, F. L. Vanauken, Edgar Warfield, Jr., A. A. Warfield, W. H. Zimmerman, S. F. Field, A. Drummond. The following ladies and gentlemen will accompany the commandery: Mr. and Mrs. Jno. S. Fowler, Miss Ida O'Neal, Mrs. Alex. McBurney, Miss Ada Thomas, Miss Alice Thomas, Miss Mary Lunt, Mrs. Jas. E. Alexander, Mrs. Marion Vickroy, Mrs. Peter Aitchison, Miss Maggie Aitchison, Miss Mattie Aitchison, Mrs. C. G. Lennon, Mrs. C. E. Davis, Misses Grigg, Messrs. F. J. Davis, Robt. Whaley and W. H. Hollmuth.

OPERATION PERFORMED.—Rev. Henderson Suter, rector of Christ Church, last night submitted to an operation for the purpose of obtaining relief from intestinal obstruction, from which he has long suffered. The operation was performed at the Infirmary, the reverend and gentleman having been taken to that institution for the reason that the church rectory has been undergoing repairs, and the additional fact that all the appliances for surgical work are at the Infirmary. The operation was performed by Drs. H. Suter, Jr., his son, and Dr. Van Rensselaer, of Washington, and Drs. O'Brien and Ashby, of this city. During the progress of the operation it was discovered that the primary cause of Mr. Suter's ailment was cancer of the liver. He stood the operation remarkably well, and this morning appeared bright. His many friends, however, are much concerned as to his condition, and there is sincere sympathy expressed for the sufferer by the entire community in which he has dwelt so long. Mr. Suter has been in charge of Christ Church for about seventeen years, and his flock and many others without it have learned to love and esteem him, and now in his affliction they earnestly hope that same power he has so often invoked for others when the hand of affliction was upon them may be moved for his relief.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Suter was resting comfortably.

CASE DISMISSED.—The case of Conductor Myers, of the Washington Southern Railway, charged with making flying switches and shifts on Fayette street, which was set for trial in the Police Court last night, was virtually dismissed, neither the defendant nor his counsel appearing. As has been stated, there is no law in the city code forbidding this dangerous procedure and until Council shall have passed such an ordinance people living in that section of the city will continue to dodge the strings of cars which are shot through Fayette street daily. Of course the people of Fayette street can go before the grand jury of the Corporation Court and have the offenders indicted on the ground that the making of the switches in a public street is a menace to life and limb. But Council will meet in a few weeks' time when it is said the necessary legislation in the matter will be proceeded with.
